Sociologists have long marveled at the degree to which the norms of the modern nation-state is imprinted upon the human psyche by its pre-existing ideology, which has permeated individual's thoughts, muscles, and morality. These norms are then deconstructed and reconstructed into the optimal form 31 by the modern age. In this way individuals go through their day with the expectation that everyone will 32 their generalized assumptions about how a "normal" person will respond and behave. And so children habitually obey, anticipating the wishes of a parent or teacher, as well as the 33 of the police officer, professor, shop-keeper, workplace supervisor, and tax collector. This generalized anticipation becomes the shared common sense around 34.

people are expected to orient their thoughts, behaviors, and world views. Such common sense is often bounded by the modern nation-state, 35 in recent years, it has at times gone global. In the process, the unique characters of smaller polities, economies, and societies slowly but surely disappear under the weight of modernity.

How do you lose weight in the first place?—Mostly, through breathing. While the concept of "burning" fat is not altogether wrong, losing fat involves plenty of carbon dioxide leaving your body. As the Washington Post explains: Researchers found that to burn a pound of fat, a human needs to inhale about three pounds of oxygen and drink about a pound of water. Water can exit the body in plenty of ways—poop, pee, sweat, saliva and any number of bodily fluids but your lungs handle the brunt of the weight loss.

Your fat "goes" into the atmosphere. (And no, it doesn't contribute to global warming) When it does go, you're also releasing the extra storage of vitamins and toxins along with it. That might not sound like a good thing, but in the long run it's far better to be rid of them. As Popular Science states, a kind of pesticides, among other pollutants, are known to get bound up in fat-they leak into our food supply: Bodies don't seem to store enough of these to become toxic, but the constant build-up leaves you vulnerable to exposure. And they do start to re-emerge when you lose weight.

By losing weight at a healthy pace (1-2 pounds a week), the limited number of pollutants released will not overload your bloodstream. Your urine will make quick work of them. Extreme dieting is a different story. The more weight you lose, the more of these toxins enter your bloodstream.

Since we no longer face the same problem as our ancestors-most of us don't have to worry about whether or not we'll eat tonight, or tomorrow-fat storage plays a different role in our bodies than previously. Many avoidable health problems are due to this excessive storage of energy, hormones and toxins. Some researchers claim 70 percent of our medical problems can be addressed through a healthier lifestyle, which includes eating better and moving more.

Two of the wealthiest African-American men in America live in Chicago, with its large African-American middle-class community. Because both men are named Johnson, their names and businesses are sometimes each confused with the other, aggravating both men. Each is justifiably proud of the business he has created for himself and the position it gives him in African-American cultural, social, and business life.

George Johnson is the founder of Johnson Products Company, which manufactures cosmetics. The Johnson Products Company is one of the largest African-American owned companies in the United States, and it is also one of the most successful. Its founders and its corporate officers are proud of the company's position. They also feel a certain pride because the Johnson Products Company was among the first companies to realize that African-Americans in America were a distinct market group, with distinct needs, and with the affluence to buy and support products aimed at meeting their needs. The Johnson Products cosmetics are all designed for the needs of African-Americans

John Johnson is the founder of Johnson Publishing Company, the largest African-American owned publishing company in the nation. As an office boy at Supreme Life Insurance, Johnson was assigned to maintain a file of news clippings about the achievements of African-Americans, and he noticed that there was no national newspaper or magazine devoted to coverage of African-American news. He borrowed the printing equipment at the life insurance offices, and he raised money for advertisements by mortgaging his mother's furniture. He knew he was going to make it when $6,000 worth of subscriptions poured in for his first issue. His monthly Negro Digest made him wealthy enough to launch a second publication, Ebony, which was even more successful than his first. Ebony has one and a third million subscribers. In fact, the company had been worth more than $60 million because the company has branched into real estate, banking, and insurance. The officers and owners are proud that this success has come from serving the African-American community, once again proving its power as a market. Life magazine, which Ebony followed in its use of large photographs, has ceased publication, but Ebony keeps rolling off the presses every week. In a word, Johnson Publishing Company is an iconic part of American and African American history.

The poster features a yellow background with decorative lightbulb icons. At the top, the text reads "志光·學儒·保成 跟著學長姐 你也能 高分上榜". Below this, four interviewees are profiled:

- 全國第四 陳○佑 111一般警察特考 四等行政警察: "我在奪榜/特訓班最大的收穫就是認識到自己申論成績的不足，每周補習班都會依照進度幫我們出考卷，然後老師會來檢討和補充資料，到後期我的申論也漸漸拉起來。透過奪榜/特訓班能隨時修正自己的不足之處，讓自己保持在一個很高的水平，不要鬆懈，成功就在不遠處。"
- 全國第六 賴○憲 111一般警察特考 四等消防警察: "我報名年度班的面授課程，因為我喜歡面對面的感覺，不喜歡坐在電腦或iPad前面快轉、跳轉、回放，然後不能問問題。補習班老師都很平易近人，問再多問題也會一一解答，而且很會抓考試的小撇步，不鑽牛角尖去破解太難的題目，而是花大部分時間在大方向的提點。"
- 五個月考取 周○則 111一般警察特考 四等消防警察: "第一次準備國考的我，其實一開始是很茫然的，但還好補習班裡有好同學、好老師給我很多幫助，一點一滴的累積，才逐漸找到自己念書的方向。對我來說奪榜/特訓班給我最大的幫助是有同學可以一起討論功課，奪榜/特訓班的考試也能讓同學之間相互競爭、學習，進而成長。"
- 一年考取 楊○婷 111一般警察特考 四等行政警察: "警察法規這科，我完全跟著老師兩輪穩扎穩打，多看老師上課一直強調的重點釋字、重點法條，運用老師教給我們聯想口訣，將法條背得滾瓜爛熟，把握每周練習申論給老師批改的機會，因為老師當下就可以點出問題、解決我的疑惑，對我的申論進步有很大的幫助。"

A QR code is located in the top right corner, and a small illustration of a police officer stands on the right side of the poster.
